

Liberty Bell
Co.

Janie
1631.
Mrs.

Harr. Harring Esq.
Care of S. & J. Gay Esq.
New York.

142 Nassau Street.

143

ms.A.92.22.135

Boston, Nov. 27th 1846.

To

Hans. Harris, Esq.

Dear Sir,

I enclose

herewith a copy of the Anti-Slavery Annual -
"the Liberty Bell" for your acceptance. I wish thickly to shade the way for a regard that you would enrich the next number, to appear at the close of the year, with a few pages, either in prose or Poetry - German, Danish or English, at your pleasure. The only suggestion I would offer is that they should be in some connection with the subject of freedom, & that they should be placed in my hands almost immediately use to see me their appearance the present year. A severe domestic calamity has prevented my making this request seasonably, as I intended; still I hope you will be able to grant it for the sake of those principles of freedom which are now trampled on in the land that professes to reverence them. India the ~~symbol~~ of the Liberty Bell is less a literary one, than one of union against wrong, and, as a symbol of such union, and a means of recommending it, this little book containing the names of many in all parts of the world who love right, is an humble publication at the Anti-Slavery Bazaar, Boston I am dear Sir, yours with high appreciation, Maria Weston Chapman

MS. A. 2. 22. 135